

Quiz 1

ECEn 370

Name: _____Solution_____

1. What are the problems with defining probability using

a) Classical probability theory:

There is no way to deal with differing probabilities for different outcomes.

b) Relative frequency of occurrence:

The true underlying probabilities for an event cannot be known without running an infinite number of experimental trials.