Problem 521–3

Give an efficient algorithm to determine whether two sets (of size $m$ and $n$) are disjoint. Analyze the complexity of your algorithm in terms of $m$ and $n$. Be sure to consider the case where $m << n$ ($m$ is substantially smaller than $n$).