

Weidman Global Scholar / Weidman Leader Scholar BYU Scholarship Application

The challenges of competing in a global economy and addressing the problems facing humankind will require globally agile leaders with strong technical skills. The Weidman Center for Global Leadership was established within Brigham Young University's Ira A. Fulton College of Engineering and Technology to help address this need. The center's purpose is to help develop tomorrow's leaders by promoting excellence in the teaching, learning and practice of leadership in a global context while supporting the college's mission to develop men and women of faith, character and technical ability who will become outstanding leaders throughout the world.

Scholarship Details

The Weidman Center for Global Leadership will award six, half-tuition scholarships each academic year to students who demonstrate a commitment to developing global agility and/or leadership agility. These scholarships are renewable and must be applied for each year. Finalists will be contacted for an interview by mid-March.
