Grandpa Grandma Mindy

A color photograph of a family group of nine people, including an older man, several children, and a baby, posed indoors in front of a window with sheer curtains. The man, wearing glasses and a dark suit, is holding a baby in his arms. To his left, two boys are sitting on a couch. In the foreground, a boy in a patterned sweater and a girl in a blue dress are sitting. To the right, a girl in a blue dress is holding a flute. The group is smiling and looking at the camera.

A group of five children are lying on their stomachs on a grey carpeted floor, looking up and smiling. From left to right: a girl with a black cap and white shirt, a girl with a blue bow in her hair and white shirt, a girl in a pink dress, a boy in a black and white patterned shirt, and a boy in a white and grey striped shirt. An adult's legs in black pants and shoes are visible in the background.
